Mont-Sainte-Anne is a year-round mountain destination located within the Laurentian mountain chain about 25 miles northeast of Quebec City. Known for spectacular scenery and long groomed trails, the ski area contains a wide mix of terrain that ranges beginner to advanced.

The resort is host to multiple other winter activities including cross country skiing, snowshoeing, dog sledding, paragliding, sleigh rides and ice skating. Mont-Sainte-Anne, one of Canada's original ski areas opening in January of 1966, is known for having the highest night skiing vertical in Canada and was host to the first Canadian Winter Games in 1967.

Skiing and snowboarding is available off three sides of the mountain with 70 trails spread across 2,145 accessible acres.

The resort offers groomed runs through moguls, and steeps accommodating skiers and riders of all levels. The terrain is rated as 23% beginner, 18% intermediate, 45% advanced and 14% expert where 80% of the mountain has snowmaking.

In Mont Sainte Anne, the Grand Rapids Ski Club will be staying at the Chateau Mont St. Anne, a ski in ski out resort at the base of the mountain within walking distance of many unique après ski bars and fine dining French restaurants. www.chateaumsa.com

Québec City is the soul of the province, and the fiercer grip on French Canadian identity. It also happens to be one of North America's oldest and most magnificent settlements. Its picturesque Old Town is a Unesco World Heritage site, a living museum of narrow cobblestone streets, 17th- and 18th-century houses and soaring church spires, with the splendid Château Frontenac towering above it all. There's more than a glimmer of Old Europe in its classic bistros, sidewalk cafes and manicured squares.

The city's compact size makes it ideal for walking, and it shines brightest when you slow down. The main focus of your visit should be the Old Town, split between the Old Upper Town (Haute Ville), perched above the St Lawrence River on the Cap Diamant cliffs, and the Old Lower Town (Basse Ville), where Samuel de Champlain established the first French foothold in 1608. The Old Town is packed with museums, mansard-roofed houses and cobblestone streets just begging to be explored.

In Quebec City, the Grand Rapids Ski Club will be staying at the Hotel Manoir, located in the heart of Old Town just off Rue St. Jean and its bars and restaurants.
